

7521116945.txt

Keep the internet free and open to us all. By giving paying customers (big business) the upper hand, you take away the power the internet has given to those of us who want to say something but haven't had a voice before.

Make internet a utility.