

7521117005.txt

The internet is the future, please do not hamper innovation and make broadband internet as a title II common carrier telecommunications service. I live in Luxembourg but I still believe this is important as the USA is the innovation capital of the world