

7521117196.txt

Please reconsider your next course of action in dealing with Internet Service Providers, the system you thought up back in 2010 was brilliant and beautiful, and the only thing stopping it was the fact that ISPs are not classified as Common Carriers, so I request that you classify ISPs as a Title II Common Carrier Telecommunications Service, so that they have no choice but to follow those guidelines.