

7521117420.txt

Preferential fast lanes are not the best way to serve the greater good for taxpayers. Furthermore, in the absence of local competition, broadband providers should be classified as Common Carriers.