

7521117450.txt

Reclassify Internet Broadband services as common carriers!!! The internet should NOT be a weapon in the hands of cable companies, but what its name entails: the world wide web. A service which connects people across the globe and allows them to do whatever they would like whenever they would like.