

7521117531.txt

My internet shouldn't be limited because someone wants to make more money nor should it be slowed today because I go onto a website that my service provider doesn't like. It should be like electricity, it comes in but they don't charge extra if I use a brand they don't like. Keep Net Neutrality Alive.