

7521117837.txt

Please keep the internet free --- it's how we're going to create more business, and thus more jobs, in this country as start up companies are able to form and become huge successes. Please do not let the cable companies become even more of a monopoly than they already are. We, the consumer, need choices and we hope that you won't take away those choices by making a "too big to fail" company out of the cable companies.