

7521117840.txt

I am opposed to the merger of Time Warner and Comcast for the following rationale:

1. Both act as internet service providers (ISPs)
2. ISPs currently act as local monopolies
3. Such mergers will result in fewer alternatives to the consumer
4. Neither company is willing to accept the restrictions associated with being a monopoly

Instead, I would prefer broadband internet providers should be classified as common carriers under Title II of the Communications Act.