

7521117884.txt

The open internet is what has kept this country leading the world in many business spaces. If we allow internet service providers to charge users for preferential treatment Net Neutrality would be destroyed and anti-competitive practices will increase.