

7521118288.txt

As a consumer and content creator, I ask the FCC to please designate internet service providers as common carriers and help maintain a free and open internet. FCC officials, please do your job and protect the interest of the public rather than the interests of large and powerful corporations.