

7521118309.txt

Please do not allow internet providers to sell different speeds (fast or slow) on the internet. Net neutrality is the key to an open internet. Telecoms can't discriminate against phone exchanges, why should internet providers be able to? The internet is a utility - let's keep it open and neutral.