

7521118442.txt

Please keep the internet a neutral information ground. Please keep equal access. Please reclassify broadband internet as a telecommunications (or "Common carrier") service. Do not let the cable companies and other corporations (read - NOT humans) take away our ability and access to free speech and information. Please don't let them line your pockets with money that you will never spend.