

7521118598.txt

As an internet user, I am concerned about net neutrality and ask that you reclassify broadband internet as a "common carrier" service. The recent proposal to allow ISP's to create a two-tiered system allows my ISP to reward/punish me based on how I use the internet. It also allows them to charge content providers for a service that I already pay for. Please make ISP's treat all data the same.