

7521119393.txt

If these big companies get their way then there is no stopping them. The internet is a place of information for all. It should not be at the mercy of greedy companies wishing to exploit it and the people wishing to use it. Corporations being made legal as people was a foolish mistake. Let's not make another. Keep the internet free of these faceless, merciless and greedy corporations.