

7521119796.txt

Net neutrality is vital in everyone's everyday life. By allowing businesses to buy bandwidth, you're lowering innovation because it will now be more difficult to be innovative. We won't have any more new Facebooks or Twitter. Why would people bother trying to be innovative when it is too difficult to be competitive because they can't afford to pay for bandwidth. This has to be shut down any way possible. Please help stop this!!