

Ms. Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary
Federal Communications Commission
445 Twelfth Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

May 8, 2014

Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation

RE: GN Docket Nos. 14-28, 10-127, 09-191; WC Docket No. 07-52

Dear Ms. Dortch,

This letter is to advise you, in accordance with the Commission's rules, that on May 6, 2014, I spoke over the phone with Rebekah Goodheart, Commissioner Clyburn's Legal Advisor for Wireline issues.

The substance of my presentation was fully consistent with the petition submitted by Mozilla to the Commission on May 5, 2014, also filed in the above Commission dockets. Specifically, we discussed the statutory definition of telecommunications services and past precedential Commission orders interpreting those precedents, as well as how the statute and those precedents are interpreted in the Mozilla petition. We also discussed substantive and procedural intersections between the Mozilla petition and the open proceeding on adopting rules to protect the open Internet, including the forthcoming Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. I contended that the Mozilla petition raised issues of authority that were connected to substantive discussions around open Internet rules, and that the conversations should be had together to ensure that all ideas are being discussed and that all options remain open.

Sincerely,

/s/ M. Chris Riley

M. Chris Riley
Senior Policy Engineer
Mozilla
mchris@mozilla.com

cc: Rebekah Goodheart