

7521120333.txt

Internet service providers should be classified as Common Carriers!

The internet should not be able to be throttled by a company because they choose to offer the same services