

7521120437.txt

The Internet is a necessity in the modern age. People use it to conduct all forms of business, solve problems, and communicate with family and others. The size of the bandwidth citizens are afforded should not be second to that of businesses with large lobbying efforts. Please classify the Internet as a common carrier and support net neutrality.