

7521120538.txt

I have grave concerns that the rules proposed by Chairman Tom Wheeler will have terribly detrimental effects for the American consumer, future American innovation, and the American economy. I implore the commission to reject the idea of allowing any form of introducing a tiered aspect to the internet, and instead to preserve the open, free, and equal nature of our internet infrastructure. Thank you.