

7521120721.txt

The internet is an essential communication medium in today's society--too important to be left unprotected. Please classify internet access as a Title II Common Carrier service to protect the freedom and health of this medium going forward.