

7521120733.txt

To harm net neutrality is to destroy the marketplace of ideas. It would be a vicious embarrassment to the American way. Without question, the preservation of net neutrality is a must for maintaining this country's integrity for free, equal and protected speech.