

7521120955.txt

Please keep the internet open. If we limit the internet we are only limiting our potential as an intelligent species to evolve.

People have the right to see, read, purchase, from sites with the same speed and ease on each website regardless of that owners ability to bribe for better speeds. I for one will boycott services and encourage others to do so if these rules are put in place.

Thank you.