

7521121063.txt

Net neutrality needs to remain. Passing a law like this allows cable companies to monopolize the future of communications. You need to consider the future of technology and global networking.