

7521121136.txt

The so called fast lane proposal will place a tax on businesses that are growing our economy in favor of parasites that barely offer any value to the market. Instead, have the courage to reclassify broadband Internet as a common carrier.