

7521121188.txt

The current planned changes to Net Neutrality cannot be allowed to proceed. It would be disastrous for a free and open internet, especially considering how we already have ISPs such as Comcast have already been found to be breaking the rules by throttling/shaping traffic despite claims that they are not. Net Neutrality isn't something of convenience, it protects our personal freedom, especially that of expression, which our great nation was founded on.