

7521121415.txt

Like most people I am duly concerned that the internet is being wrangled with. We wish for it to remain as it is without changes or preferential treatment showed to any. We are also VERY concerned about the narrowing of internet providers - such as with the proposed Comcast merger - we know from experience that more options provide consumers with better service and/or prices due to competition.

Your intervention on behalf of consumers is clearly needed.