

7521121698.txt

As a government employee the only question you need to ask yourself is, 'Who benefits more from this, a corporation, or the American public?' If there is even a hint that a corporation stands to benefit at the expense of the people then you choose the hard right over the easy wrong. Every time.