

7521121937.txt

As a small business owner, I strongly believe that big telecoms cannot be allowed to police themselves when it comes to protecting the open internet. They are already abusing their networks as is. Comcast is government subsidized monopoly. We helped them build their networks with taxpayer dollars. They are and must be classified as a utility. Invoke title II. Classify them as such. You know this is the right thing to do for America and it's citizens.