

7521122082.txt

Please reclassify Internet service as a telecommunications service and adopt network neutrality rules under Title II of the Telecommunications Act rules that are unencumbered by the restrictions imposed by Section 706. To ensure that reclassification does not result in onerous regulation, the FCC should immediately forbear from applying those Title II provisions that are not necessary to protect consumers.