

7521122924.txt

please decision to make sure the internet doesn't slow down and then become a major income stream for the providers.

The internet should be the same for everyone and accessible for all. This is what is the right thing to do. It should be treated as a monopoly and as such governed by the US rules.