

7521122936.txt

Any kind of limitation to the accessibility or use of the Internet is absolutely a human rights issue. Please do what your firm can to ensure that the Internet is as free as possible from corporate controls. The Internet should be vast, unbiased and delivered to the public at the best quality and speed possible. Please do not allow companies to charge more for faster speeds.