

7521123121.txt

The time has come to classify ISPs as common carriers. These organizations are already monopolies enjoying lobbies with pervasive and unfair influence at the highest reaches of the FCC. The 'fast lane' plan clearly panders to the selfish interests of the providers, and is a direct product of corporate cronyism and callous disregard of the taxpayer.

FCC, you have been bought!