

7521123167.txt

I am requesting that you reclassify Internet connections as Class II common carrier telecommunications service so that we can have FREEDOM for all! I feel that limiting the speed of certain sites not only limits availability to Americans, it allows companies to decide what news and information we have the ability to see. If we wanted to deal with limited information, then we would be living like those in China!