

It is quite obvious to any customer that this is not acceptable. How will this merger "promote competition, innovation and investment," as mentioned on the FCC website?