

7521123363.txt

Do not let Comcast and Time Warner merge into a monopoly. Anyone except those with stuffed pockets knows how horrible these companies rip off their customers, flat out lie, and engulf any and all competition.

The FCC needs to hold strong to net neutrality, and deny comcast and time warner from merging. Further action would be to classify internet service providers as common carriers.