

7521123946.txt

I have built my entire professional life around the freedom of the Internet and this issue directly affects my ability to provide for myself and my family. It is extremely important to protect the Internet from monopolization. America is falling behind fast, and unless this problem is fixed, we will be face-first in a world of poop.