

7521124165.txt

You need to not let the two corps. merge. This is why we have antitrust laws. Just because most cable companies already have a monopoly does not mean you as the people who are suppose to stop regulate this should allow a bigger one to form. Do your job and listen to the people and the lobbyist. If the people tell you one thing and the lobbyist are telling you the opposite then if your any kind of decent American you should know to listen to the people.