

7521124349.txt

Please keep the internet the way it is. We do not need more people (corporations) telling us what information we can and cannot access, and at what speed. The way I understand it, start up companies will not have the bandwidth to be seen or heard. Net Neutrality is exactly what is great about the internet. Free speech is at the root of this - more free speech - less corporate greed! Thank you for listening.