

7521124511.txt

I think ISPs should be classified as common carriers. I also believe the merger between Time Warner and Comcast is wrong, and would form a monopoly. Furthermore, I think it should be possible for other ISPs to enter the market so there is fair competition.

Net neutrality is very important. Maybe you should get rid of former cable industry lobbyists as well since they may have sympathy towards their former employers wants.