

7521124930.txt

Hello, I am truly concerned about the lack of action concerning net neutrality. There is a current precedence being set with comcast and netflix, which if unchecked can lead to an unfair distribution of broadband. Internet service providers cannot and should not dictate where users go, or attempt to direct and control traffic. It makes the internet an unfair market place, and can be very wrongfully used.