

7521128167.txt

I don't agree with the way you are handling net neutrality. I think the rules you are proposing are going to suppress new online businesses and innovation.

All internet data should be treated equally. Without this, the most important communication platform the world has ever seen will be severely crippled.

Please maintain Net Neutrality.