

7521128498.txt

FCC - do you want a revolt? Because this is how you get a revolt. Taking away entertainment from the masses is about the only thing that's going to cause the American people to get up off of their duffs and protest. The internet should remain free and out of the hands of corporations. This is a slippery slope to censorship.