

7521128652.txt

Let it be known that I do not support the FCC's recent decision to allow "internet fast lanes". I feel this will significantly hurt the internet as we know it, including stifling innovation, further creating monopolistic environments and causing unnecessary additional costs to consumers. I will not vote to put into office anyone who supports these "internet fast lanes".

Regards,

Chad Szal a