

7521128946.txt

The internet was built to be free and open. To sacrifice that openness and freedom to give some corporation the ability to make a quck buck is a travesty. You should be ashamed, corporations have shown no interest nor ability to protect the public. That is the reason you are here. That should be your one and only job. You have failed the American public by caving to private interests and you should be ashamed.