

7521128990.txt

A free and open internet is essential to the business, especially small businesses on the internet. The passage of the plan for paid priority is a gross travesty that has been committed on the people who use the internet and those who make their livelihood off the internet.