

7521129167.txt

I would like to express that ISPs or content providers should be classified as common carriers, and should not be granted the ability to adjust internet bandwidth or throughput under any circumstances and for any reason. Thank you.