

7521130076.txt

I do not like the current proposed rules for Net Neutrality. I think it is an important to have proper Net Neutrality. Meaning that the internet stays free and open. I fear that the new rules will end up causing the internet to operate more like Cable currently does. True Net Neutrality starts with writing creating rules that don't allow loopholes for ISPs. That are not written by lobbyists for those companies. And make sure that the Net stays vast and infinite.