

7521130663.txt

I do not support the FCC's recently passed plan to allow telcoms to alter bandwidth speed on a per-content-provider basis. I rise in support of reclassification of internet service providers under Title II entities. The internet should be free and open to everyone. Thank you for reading this.