

7521131182.txt

There is already an oligopoly on ISPs, and this merger would further hurt this problem. Many areas of the US have only one single ISP to choose from, meaning that they are stuck with their prices and merchandise, regardless of if they are happy with their service. This merger should not be allowed to go through, and in fact it should be made easier for competing ISPs to move into an area or open a new business.