

7521132038.txt

I am opposed to the FCC granting this request to Comcast and Time Warner, or any other content provider or ISP, as it undermines the fundamental egalitarian nature of the Internet. Granting this request sets a precedent that will have negative implications for freedom of expression and the growth of Internet commerce.